Tell your story.
The sound of your voice telling your story. That's what VOICES: a personal and family oral history project is all about. VOICES is the portable recording studio that travels throughout the entire Grand Rapids metro area (Wyoming and Kentwood—surrounding cities, too!) gathering the true-life stories—any story from anyone—that make up the fabric of our lives and our community. You don't have to be a celebrity. You only have to be… you.

Our mission is to collect, preserve and share the stories of people in our community.
What is VOICES?
You've always been proud of your heritage; your family; of the generations that have come before—the stories of hardships and successes. Now you can tell the story of what shaped you and your family into the kind of people you are today. At VOICES: a community history project, you capture it as your own keepsake and for the sake of the community.

Go online to our website at WKTVVOICES.ORG. There you'll find our schedule—where the portable recording studio will be located next, how you can reserve a time, prepare for your conversation, and discover just how important your story is to our community.
